Banks and building societies may not accept Direct Debit Instruction for some types of accounts. Please note, if we are unable to verify the bank account details provided to us, we will require you to send us a bank statement.

We can accept the statement (original/photocopy) that is returned along with this form by post, if you wish to provide this now. Any original statement will be returned to you. The bank statement should be less than three months old and show your full name, current home address, your sort code and account number. This will need to contain some transactional information and the details of the bank, including the bank logo, name and address (branch, registered or web address). We will accept a scanned copy of your bank statement as long as this has been sent from your email address which you have already provided to us and this should be sent to hello@eqi.co.uk. However, you should be aware that there are potential risks in sending documents that contain your sensitive bank account information by email as this is not considered to be a totally secure medium. If you are unable to provide a bank statement, we can accept a cheque from your nominated bank account with "void" written across it.

We recommend that you retain a copy of the Direct Debit guarantee

The Direct Debit Guarantee

- This Guarantee is offered by all banks and building societies that accept instructions to pay Direct Debits.
- If there are any changes to the amount, date or frequency of your Direct Debit, Equiniti Financial Services Limited, trading as EQi ("EQi"), will notify you 10 working days in advance of your account being debited or as otherwise agreed. If you request EQi to collect a payment, confirmation of the amount and date will be given to you at the time of the request.
- If an error is made in the payment of your Direct Debit, by EQi or your bank or building society, you are entitled to a full and immediate refund of the amount paid from your bank or building society.
- If you receive a refund you are not entitled to, you must pay it back when EQi asks you to.
- You can cancel a Direct Debit at any time by simply contacting your bank or building society. Written confirmation may be required. Please also notify us.
